Julie

I just wished to share this quick note to say thank you for your support and help with our accounting needs.

Your positive attitude and supportive input have helped greatly in putting our financials in order as well as reducing the stress normally associated with the accounts. Your knowledge and confidence are reassuring and your positive attitude makes dealing with you a pleasure.

Thanks again to you and all at Cummings West, and we look forward to your continued support and involvement. We will highly recommend your services to anyone wishing to have professional and friendly accounting help.

Regards

Tony and Linda Bristow
